FORENSIC SQUADS REPORT SUCCESSFUL SOUTHERN MEETS

State Teams Win Nine Non-Decision Debates; Lose To U. S. C., Two Junior Colleges

Although all their debates were non-decision, State forensic representatives indicated upon their return from Southern California last Thursday, that, in the opinion of an impartial audience, they won nine and lost three of their twelve debates on the trip.

One of the debates was lost by Bill Rose and Patricio Megino to the crack U.S.C. team; J. Wallace Gallagher and Marianne Nelson losing to Pasadena J. C., and Jeanette Jennings and Muriel Senk dropping a "decision" to Bakersfield Junior College.

MET TEN TEAMS

During the course of their southern invasion, the debaters met ten major colleges, including Fresno State, Pasadena J. C., U. C. L. A., Bakersfield J. C., Fullerton J. C., Modesto J. C., Whittier J. C., Cal Tech, Los Angeles J. C. and U.S.C.

The team of Rose-Megino met teams from Modesto J. C., L.A. J.C., U.S.C., and had a round-table discussion with the Fullerton J. C. Jennings and Senk met Fresno State, Bakersfield J. C., Pasadena J. C. and U.C.L.A. The mixed team of Gallagher and Nelson met Modesto J. C., Pasadena J. C., Cal Tech and Los Angeles J. C.

LABOR QUESTION

Question debated was the Pi Kappa Delta "Resolved: that the National Labor Relations Board should be given power to enforce arbitration in all labor disputes." In most of the meets State took the affirmative, but in some they argued the negative. Senk and Jennings took the affirmative three times and the negative once, as did Rose and Megino. Gallagher and Nelson argued both sides twice.

Regarding the debating trip, Bill Rose, Delta Sigma president, said: "The hospitality extended us was most cordial, Modesto, Fullerton, and U. C. L. A. having gone out of their way to make the visit enjoyable for the Staters."

STRATEGY COMM. TO CONTACT CITY LEADERS, P.W.A.

Governor Guarantees Funds To Replace College Hall

Organizing forces to contact city leaders to arouse interest in the student campaign for building funds the Strategy Committee today made plans to proceed on their campaign launched this semester.

In accordance with a statement issued last week by Governor Merriam stating that sufficient funds will be granted to San Francisco State College to replace at least College Hall, the Student Committee plans to contact city and state officials in an attempt to get federal grants through P.W.A. funds. Merriam stated that if federal aid was secured, the State would match the arrangement made. Appointments will be made and kept this week with civic leaders by William J. J. Smith, student body president and chairman of the committee, and his assistants, Bud Decker, Ed Smith, Norman Zeck, and Cliff Worth.

An event is being planned which will involve the entire student body and will be explained further at a later date. This affair will be staged to arouse enthusiasm and interest in the building campaign.

Will Smith states that the "situation looks decidedly favorable, but only organized student effort will get the college what it wants and needs. I appeal to the student body to act only in a way that will bring favor on the school."

Annual Fashion Show For Bib 'n' Tucker

Bib 'n' Tucker will present its annual fashion show December 2 from 12 to 1 in the Frederic Burk Auditorium. Admission to the affair will be ten cents, and clothes will be modeled by the members of the club.

Ticket committee is headed by Virginia Stolte, and may be purchased from any of the members. Other committees include: Decoration, Kay Landerrille, Virginia Hannah, and Betty Christenson; Posters, Peggy Clifford; while Miss Mayer will be commentator for the show.

CHRISTMAS JINX DEC. 10; WILSON HEAD

Admission Twenty-Five Cents and a Can of Groceries

Last student body social affair before vacation will be the Christmas Jinx, sponsored by the executive board on December 10 in the gym.

Outstanding feature of the dance, as announced by Dawn Wilson, vice-president of the student body and chairman of the dance is the fact that "admission will be twenty-five cents and a can of food."

"The purpose of this unusual admission cost," the vice-president continued, "is to raise a large amount of canned groceries to donate to needy families. Any profit to the dance will be turned over to the charity drive."

"Some twenty families connected with the nursery school need fuel, canned goods, clothing, cod liver oil, toys, etc., and the student body should make this a real Christmas for them by getting behind the dance," she concluded.

Tentative plans for the dance include many free favors to be given away, which will include free cigarettes, theatre passes, cover charges to downtown hotels, candies, and some permanent souvenir.

Decorations for the occasion will be of a nature that can be taken down and given to children as Christmas presents.

Committee in charge of the Jinx includes Dawn Wilson, Ed Smith, Bill Hammond, Cliff Worth, Francis Bolander, Bob Black, and Bud Decker.

Arrangements are being made for a Santa Claus and a floor show.

Skating Party For Epsilon Mu

Members of Epsilon Mu will hold their annual skating party Friday evening at 7 o'clock at the San Francisco Ice Skating Rink. Price for the affair will be fifty cents and all planning on attending should sign up with Jack Martens, Post Box 7. If there are any who can not meet at this hour, they, too, should see Mr. Martens.

Those going should take "N" car or "7" to 48th Ave., and walk south to Kirkham Street. The group will meet in front of the rink.

Delta Sigma Nu Cake Sale Today

Today Delta Sigma Nu, home economics society and Patrons' Association of San Francisco, will sponsor a Cake Sale, proceeds of which will go to the Student Loan Fund. Price per piece will be five cents and ten cents. Cake may be purchased at the noon dance and in College Hall.

Club Notice

All regularly chartered clubs and organizations on the State Campus are asked to select a member to make a resume of the activities of his group for the current year. Those chosen will contact Bob Chamberlin as soon as possible.

Gold Boxing Gloves Awarded Division Winners; San Mateo, S. F. Junior Colleges Participate In Christmas Show

By DAVE SCHUTZ

The aroma of resin and the thud-thud of gloves ricocheting off human countenances will be prevalent tonight in the gym when the Block "S" sponsors their gigantic boxing show.

Fighters from S. F. J. C. and San Mateo J. C. will start swinging leather at the stroke of eight in this second annual triangular meet with gold boxing gloves, donated by Granat Bros., to be awarded to those fortunate souls emerging victorious.

Feature battle of the evening will be the return match between Maury Schwartz of San Francisco State and Ray Greenwood of S. F. J. C. Last year these two men battled through three furious rounds in the most thrilling fight on the card.

Besides Schwartz, the outstanding entrants from State are George Stewart, heavyweight, who was a finalist in last year's show, and Jim McCoy, entered in the 126 pound division. McCoy, despite his weight, was prep school champion at 146 lbs.

Hal Beseman is chairman of the affair with Ed Yeager acting in the capacity of assistant. Tickets are on sale at school, any Block "S" man can get them for anyone desiring to attend. The Block "S" Society is sponsoring the show with tickets selling at twenty-five cents general admission, and thirty-five cents for ring side.

WESTERN SECTION DELEGATES CONVENE IN S. F.

Sixty-seven delegates from twelve western colleges and junior colleges participated in the ninth annual Alpha Phi Gamma-Beta Phi Gamma fall convention, held this year at Hotel Stewart November 26, 27 and 28, with the local Alpha Gamma chapter acting as host. Beta Phi is the Junior College affiliate of the national honorary journalistic fraternity.

Friday evening a banquet at the Shanghai Low followed the afternoon's registration, tour of the city, and tea. "Duke" Meyer, of the San Francisco Call-Bulletin, was guest speaker at the banquet.

Saturday morning was spent in a Writer's Tournament.

Bernstein's Fish Grotto was the setting for a luncheon Saturday noon with L. E. Townsend, director of advertising of the Bank of America, speaking.

Saturday afternoon business meetings, and initiations in the two fraternities were held at the hotel. The day was climaxed by a dinner-dance at the Hotel Claremont in Berkeley.

Sunday morning the convention was adjourned, following a brief joint business meeting.

In a publications contest, rating college and junior college papers, magazines, and annuals, the S. F. State Golden Gater was placed first over all college papers submitted.

Dr. Fisk Talks To J. C. On Youth Against War

Speaking before a general assembly of San Francisco Junior College students recently, Dr. Alfred G. Fisk of the college Philosophy department, emphasized the importance of the youth of America in waging a consistent fight against the threat of war.

"If another war comes, the youth of the world will have to do the fighting. The time to stop war is before it starts. The time to wage peace is now while we have a chance to exert pressure. Let the youth of America unite in their efforts to build a warless world," Dr. Fisk stated.

NEGRO GROUP SPONSORS NOON DANCE TODAY

State's newly-organized Negro Group will sponsor today's Noon Dance with an outside all-colored orchestra, Wes People's Swing Band playing.

Colored entertainment will be presented during intermission. Mr. Leslie Williams, a professional tap dancer from San Mateo Junior College, who has performed in Los Angeles and Hollywood, will present several numbers, and Miss Georgetta Yebby, a State student, will lead those attending the noon dance in several unique dances such as Big Apple, Truckin, and Lindy Hop.

Miss Francis Twohig, chairman of the noon dances, states that this dance will be one of the most unusual of the semester.

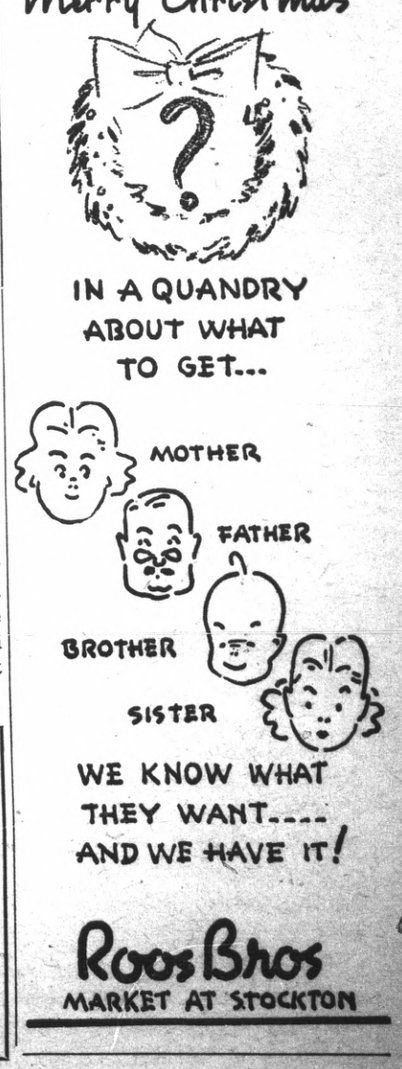
Dr. Brown Elected To National Office

Dr. Sherman Brown was elected representative to the National Convocation of Kappa Delta Pi to be held in February at Atlantic City, New Jersey, at the group's regular meeting last Monday. Alternate delegate will be Miss Virginia Kyriazi, president of the local chapter. At the convocation, Mr. John Dewey will be the main speaker, and will address the delegation on childhood education.

At present the club is collecting books to distribute to children at Christmas time. All those who have any to contribute may put them in the box in the main hall or contact Pauline Quirk, chairman.

Franciscan

Final deadline for return of Senior proofs to Fisher Studios is today at four o'clock. All proofs must be returned and a selection made by that time. In the event that proofs are not returned the Franciscan will make an arbitrary selection of pictures.



EDITORIALS

Editorials and feature articles in the Golden Gater reflect only the writer's opinion. They make no claim to represent student or administration opinion. All unsigned editorials are by the Editor.

A Library Reply

In recent issues, the Gater has editorialized the request to have the library remain open at night. To properly gauge student opinion on the matter, a poll was printed, results of which have been placed in proper channels.

Now comes a new viewpoint on the request, expressed in excerpts from a very fair, accurate letter by Ruth Fleming, librarian.

"It must be made plain to all interested, that if the library were to be kept open until ten o'clock in the evening, no reserved books would be issued until, possibly, nine-forty-five. It then becomes necessary to know how many students prefer that hour for the issuing of reserved books, to the present four-o'clock hour.

"Another consideration is the cost of the extra service. It is obvious that seventeen hours of additional service could not be given by the present library staff, without too greatly weakening our day-time service.

"It may not be generally known that several experiments in keeping the library open in the evening have been tried here. Many years ago it was open until nine o'clock. Attendance did not justify that, for long, and the hour of closing was set earlier, until finally it was seven o'clock. I believe the average evening attendance then, over a period of several months, was five persons. As far as more hours on Saturday are concerned, you will agree that that is 'out' when I tell you that attendance on four recent typical Saturdays, between nine and twelve, was 8, 18, 11, and 16.

"Even in spite of all these somewhat discouraging statements, I still wish to give the request of the students most serious consideration."

Information to be gained from this letter of the librarian's should greatly color actions of the committee involved in the request, and it is the Gater's wish that this letter will be helpful in formulating their action.

Might just as well lay advance plans for end-of-the-semester study. Finals are just around the corner, and the corner is getting too close for comfort.

How come the Senate doesn't quit filibustering and get down to work on the problems that President Roosevelt had in mind when he called the special session?

A.P.G. Meet Successful

Members of the S. F. State chapter of Alpha Phi Gamma entertained some 65 delegates from Western Colleges at its annual convention, held this time in San Francisco.

Reports of delegates and hosts indicate that the convention was a success, and that San Francisco did itself proud. So conventioneers return to their home campi with a story of a good convention. That sort of mouth to mouth publicity cannot be measured, but it is invaluable in placing the name of the college before many people.

During various competitions held at the convention, San Francisco gained much more than its share of glory. To the Gater went first place rating among Western College Newspapers, first for best news and sport stories. Judges rated the '39 Franciscan second place.

And so the convention is relegated to history, but to Convention Chairman Max Williamson and his assistants goes much credit and the thanks of the student body for the excellent publicity they fostered.

If you're looking for entertainment tonight, go to the Block "S" Boxing Show in the gym. The triangle meet between San Mateo, S.F.J.C., and State promises a good card, and a lively evening is ready for anyone who likes boxing.

Two more issues after today's and Vol. 25 of the Gater is no longer. Publication dates will be December 8 and January 5.

Look For The "Jinx"?!

The executive board sponsored "Xmas Jinx" is the student body's contribution as a whole to the drive for money for needy families whose children attend the nursery school. All profits from this dance will be turned over to the fund.

Most noteworthy, and quite worth the support of every member of the student body.

Much success is reported along other lines in the drive, and before the holidays enough money will be available to take care of the needy families.

Behind the whole effort has been a young lady whose name, at her request, has not been revealed. At the end of the drive the Gater will be happy to properly publicize her, and to congratulate her for her fine work.

Chamberlin's Tripe

Special Report on A.P.G. Convention:

Max Williamson, convention chairman, is receiving suggestions on how to effect an escape from the dog house. First he was responsible for the strange condition of the Elevator Boy at the Claremont and then sprayed friend Magnus generously with Seltzer water as she wearily reclined on the chaise longue (room 229) . . . This topping off his Friday exploit . . . i.e. frightening Rosemary Alexander with a vengeance. You may expect another Victorianism soon.

Not satisfied with this unmannerly conduct, the tow-headed whizbang bade adieu to the Hotel Manager and received that gentleman's congratulations . . . only to have three towels drop out the bouquet he was carrying. Rose and Schutz are reported to have engineered the situation.

* * *

Indirectly, revenge fell, literally, on the head of Bill Rose when he stuck his head out of the window . . . to be immediately and unexpectedly anointed by a potion on its way down from the Visalia delegation lodged above.

* * *

Some of the green-badged delegates captured a British newspaper correspondent who happened to have wandered into San Francisco . . . loath to let this prize go, they hauled him to all the affairs . . . even initiated him as an honorary member of the frat . . . how he'll get into meetings from dear old London hasn't been figured out . . . name is Norman Cribbens, New London Times.

* * *

Dan Baker, State Alumnus and APGer, wandered thru the Claremont . . . brushing shoulders with Herwig et al . . . singing Come Join Our Band . . . Howie Deneke and Dr. Brown and yours truly harmonizing in the now famous Room 97 . . . which the frat rented to save checking fees. . . .

* * *

And at the Claremont we ran into Virginia Valentine who promises to buzz back to State next semester.

* * *

And now, for goodness sake and gracious alive, that the prissy members of the stuffy and stodgy student body have been stepped on by the progressive, up-standing Exec Board . . . Let's have a Razz Sheet . . . one day not too far off.

* * *

Sorry about not having any more candid shots . . . but the publication dates have been so uncertain of late that we haven't had time to have cuts made . . . would like to have some response from the student body on whether or no the idea is popular . . . though after the amazing response to the Library Blanks published in the last two Gaters . . . I wonder whether the Gang would get off their spots if the school did burn . . . anyway, box number is 859.

GATER STAFF LOOKS THROUGH OUTSIDE "RAGS"

One rainy afternoon, while killing time, the Gater staff ran across these juicy tidbits from among the exchanges. Readum and see if you get as much kick out of the insinuations as they did.—the editor.

From Ventura J. C.'s paper comes the whingdinger that all the campus clubs are going to have a contest to see which one can put on the best strike, with picket lines and all—up here in S. F. we don't have to play that way, we've got enough as it is!

Chaffey J. C.'s paper reveals the revolutionary banner headline that henceforth the men and women will be separated in their rooting sections. Who Who! Too much necking between the halves? Just imagine if we did that here. Half the fun of the game would be lost! But—they do it at Cal and Stanford, and get away with it—huccome?

The Oak Leaf, Santa Rosa's rag, tells us that they are going to hold a "Fifth Football Dance". Sounds mighty good. Let's the rooting section play the fifth quarter of the game right there on the campus!

Bakersfield's "Renegade Rip" headlines the fact that the "Honor Society Makes Plans". Sounds sort of sinister. We wonder how honest the "Honor" boys are?

Whoops! We broke into Chico State's feature page! Right there, big as life is a cartoon of a very sick looking Chico Wildcat (pussy, more likely) and around its very sick head is wrapped a bandage labeled Nevada. Adhesive tape, labeled C. O. P. seems to be holding the tail on. But, best of all, its left front paw is held in a sling called S. F. STATE!

By golly we ought to present that cartoonist with a medal.

"Educators to speak" screams the headline from the "Trail Blazer" of Morehead College, Kentucky. Those guys have a break and they don't know it! Our educators speak every day, and then some. Most of them don't even know when the class ends (at the hour) and keep right on!

"Ten Student Will Attend Press Meet" informs the "West Wing", Mission High School's very sedate bit of high school journalistic endeavor. Sounds like most of our class meetings, teas, forums, etc. How about it?

The Topeka, Kansas, weekly says that a "Primary Election Is Scheduled For Next Tuesday". Wassamatter, their politicians so good they need two elections?

CO-ED'S CORNER

By SUSIE SCHULTZ

(EDITOR'S NOTE: In the absence of Carol Crouch, regular contributor to this column, the Golden Gater was fortunate in securing the services of Miss Susie Schultz, a debutante from Perkins Corners, Minnesota, to do the job. Miss Schultz is a noted authority on the subject of the college co-ed, having written such books as "The Dog in Our Backyard," "Ain't War Hell?" and "The Sex Life of the Oyster".)

Jees kids, all I can say is that it sure is an honor to take over this column for this issue. I mean, I'm really overcome by it all. But let's get right down to business, because I always say that in a column like this, we should get right down to business.

PERSONALITIES

Without even thinking twice, I right away selected Mazie Moscowitz as the personality of the week. Mazie is one of the cutest kids in the school, and let me tell you right now that she is always a constant source of inspiration to her friends, who will always tell you that they think Mazie is one swell kid, I'll have you know right now. But Mazie is modest about the whole thing, and when I told her that she would be in this column, she just lowered her eyes and blushed, and says: "Jees, won't the old lady be proud of me now, though?" So you can see, that Mazie is some kid, all right, and I know if I was her old lady, I'd sure be proud of her, is all I can say.

FASHIONS

Well, the first thing I can tell you to do, with the cold weather coming on, is to get yourself a pair of them galoshees. You know, the things you put around your shoes, and they keep your tootsies from getting wet. When you wear these, if you get cold feet, it won't be because you aren't wearing warm shoes. Haw, some pun, eh? Jees, but I'm goin' good now.

If you want to save money by making your own clothes, here's a good recipe. Tie three gunny sacks together with simple half-hitch knots. Wrap this around you like a robe, with a piece of canvas thrown over your shoulder. Sprinkle a little bit of coal dust over the sacks to give it a polka-dot effect. You can see for yourself that this outfit sure is easy to make, and it looks the berries when it's all finished.

RECIPES

Gosh, but I sure had a swell feed the other night. We started off with sweet pickles and chow mein. Then we had dill pickles and beer. The main course consisted of stuffed olives with toothpicks stuck in them, frog legs dipped in vinegar, and burnt potatoes. For dessert, we had sour pickles and beer.

* * *

Now, you kids, the column is over, and let me tell you that it sure was some fun writing it, I'll tell you right now, all right. I'm gonna scram now, so goodbye.

SAGGITTARIUS SAYS—

Having analyzed a few of America's Great Entertainers we would like to give our analysis of several of America's Inspired Columnists. Our unqualified award for the worst piece of regular newspaper writing goes, of course, to Louella O. Parsons, Hollywood's gift to the fourth estate. Lulu, referred to in some quarters as "The old cow of Hollywood," might be called the Huey Long of the Celluloid City. When Louella wants an interview with a harassed star her request is more in the nature of a command. Louella's tie up with Hearst accounts for her dictatorial hold over the actors and actresses in the South. Either the star kicks in with an interview and submits to being called by his or her first name by this columnist or no publicity is forthcoming. You may have heard little Lulu moo over the radio in a program called "Hollywood Hotel." Reliable sources inform us that those appearing on this program in the capacity of guest artists were coerced into appearing by the self-aggrandizement ambitions of little Lulu Parsons. Be that as it may, our quarrel with Parsons is in the matter of writing and not in policy. Louella is nauseatingly feminine in her descriptions of people and events. Everything is either "too too," or "so gay," or else it contains that horrible literary abortion featuring the word "but." You may have seen sentences with that phony usage such as, ". . . and Marion Davies was there but too beautiful." Get the idea? Anyway it gripes us so we're sending Louella a package of MacFarlane's chief product by next mail.

* * *

To O. O. McIntyre, who is lopping hoppity-hop into senility we send a bottle of Lydia Pinkham's, a Thesaurus, and a French-English dictionary. McIntyre, a syndicated gentleman of the fourth estate, is the coy gentleman who revolves in a New York set which includes Neysa McMein, Al Woollcott, Hecht and MacArthur, and a person called Arthur Murray. These names become so familiar, by constant repetition in Mac's column, that one feels one could slap any member of this set on the back and jaw away like an old pal. O. O. glories in the fact that he used to be a country boy and each year he writes a heart-rending saga in Cosmopolitan about how he would like to go back to the old sod and twiddle his toes in peace. It is our opinion, however, that you couldn't get Oscar Odd out of N.Y.C. with a team of mules.

* * *

Dissipating the sweetness and light of our aforementioned pair, comes the cheery visage of Westbrook Pegler. Of course Peg is referred to as a "sour-puss" but anyone who eats dill pickles for breakfast can hardly be expected to gaze upon a rose-colored world. The hypercritical Mr. Pegler is a pretty smart fellow and can even write words containing more than two syllables but we find him offensive when he lowers his big guns to bring down sparrows. Pegler hollers about everything, but he plants his darts where they can't hurt him, so to Westbrook we send a large bottle of Abbotts Bitters with instructions on the package for the postman to ring twice.

* * *

General Hugh Johnson writes a column but instead of analyzing it we will refer you to a Mr. Ickes who made the somewhat all-encompassing observation that, ". . . the General suffers from intellectual saddle-sores."

TIME OUT

By Tom Thorpe
Sports Editor

MUSINGS . . . .

No sense in reading this column today . . . or do you? . . . Walked in the office Monday and the editor-in-chief came out of his self-induced lethargy and mildly stated there would be a paper today, leaving me absolutely bewildered . . .

SPEAKING OF BOWLS . . . .

Hereafter I shall refrain from printing anonymous letters. . . . If you wish to tell me something, please sign your name. . . . Where was I? . . . Oh, yeah, I wanted to tell you about a letter I received regarding my "bowl" excerpt at the end of my last column. . . . Seems like 'Sincerely, A Reader' didn't approve of my humorous attempt. . . . Said I was old enough chronologically, but not old enough mentally to attend college. . . . I wonder what "it" would have said if the typewriter hadn't stuck and I had been allowed to finish! . . .

PUBLICITY DEPT . . . .

Add to your list of "never heard of hims" one Harold Martin, ace publicity man for your college. . . . Harold occupies a little office in Annex A and from there sees to it that S. F. State gets outside publicity in the daily sheets. . . . Martin also handles the photography end here and does a swell job. . . . Next time you see State written up in an outside rag, credit Martin with the job. . . .

TONITE'S THE NITE . . . .

Shortly after the setting of the sun the Mazda's in State's gym will burst forth turning night back into day. . . . And with the flip of the last switch comes an array of potential padded paw pushers who will indulge in a little leather pushing for the benefit of the crowd they hope will attend. . . . And that brings me to another point . . . You should attend this gigantic boxing show because, take my word for it, you will really get your two-bits worth . . . (35c ringside) . . . With such able and versatile artists in the art of fisticuffing as Maury "3 rounds" Schwartz, John Cronin and etc. . . . this show promises to be one of the outstanding events on the social calendar this semester. . . . For an exciting and enjoyable evening, come over to the gym tonite at 7:45, present your dough, sit down and prepare to be standing the rest of the evening, because you will be standing when S. F. J. C., San Mateo J. C. and State start shoving each other around. . .

SEE YA' LATER . . . .

With due apologies to the Bernie-Winchell feud; the Canton-Jessell combine, the Martins and the Coys and the Cuthey-Chamberlain melee I still insist that the more I write the more I sound like Smith. . . . And when I start writing like Smith, it's time to stop. . . . My wrists get cramped writing from Smith's level. . . . How do you write, Ed, when the typewriter is so much higher than you are, even though you set it on the floor? . . .

"Hot Time" In Gym As Staters Sink Oakland Creamery

There was literally a "hot time" in the State gym last Friday night as the boys on the Gater varsity basketball team became sharp-shooters for the evening and moved forward in machine-gun fashion to mow under the highly-touted quintet from the Oakland American Creamery to the tune of 49-29.

Once again the frosh wonder, Joe Sanz, led the Gaters' attack, this time by "swishing" through 16 points against the Creamer's stubborn defense. Billy Hammond renewed his old speed and shooting to place second in the scoring column with 10 points, that score being equaled by "Slip" Madigan, who has at last roused from his lethargy and may yet prove to be Atkinson's equal in the troublesome center position.

FAST BREAKING SQUAD

It was the shooting of these three and the fast breaking of the entire squad that spelled doom for the Milkmen, Hammond and Sanz flashing from one end of the court to the other before the defense could be set against them. The back wall of the Gaters, composed of guards Ken Johnson and Bill Plutte, not only played a stalwart defensive contest, but also were "hot as biscuits," Plutte garnering tallies mounting to the total of 10 points.

10 MEN USED

State, although using ten men in the game, could well have won the tilt with the first five men playing in the game, as only substitutes Bragg and Barbano succeeded in changing the appearance of the score-board, each making one field goal. The captain of the evening, Ken Johnson, although only making one point for the Gaters, was also "hot" in the passing field, besides being the defensive backbone.

Table Tennis Tends Towards Tuff Tourney

With Thelma Rastad and Al Luntz leading the way with two victories and hence a place in the semi-finals, contestants in the mixed doubles ping pong tournament get together at noon today for another day of battling which will eventually determine the school champions.

SIGN-UPS TAKEN

Doug Creary, director of noon recreation at the gym, is taking sign-ups for the mixed doubles badminton tourney which will start very shortly. A number of teams have already put their names on the lists, but more are needed to make the contest representative. This elimination will commence after the ping pong is finished.

WINNING COMBINE

The combination of Idell Forrest and Art Jarl, erstwhile football star, triumphed over Betty Fleming and "Buzz" Glass by scores of 21-18 and 21-14, but lost later to Thelma Rastad and Al Luntz. Luntz' powerful southpaw service is really tough to handle, and his fair partner upholds her side of the table quite well. This duo looks to be the class of the tourney, although Pearl Sigrand and "Spider" Turner will very probably give them a tussle if they meet in the finals.

Matches scheduled for this week follow: Pearl Sigrand and "Spider" Turner vs. Victoria Regier and Bill Trevorrow; Jeannette Jennings and Lou Abrams vs. Alice Coakley and Jack Martin; Loverill Williams and Alex Edelstein vs. Jean Van Arsdale and "Slip" Madigan; "Sally" Scordalis and Charles Maurer vs. Betty DeVoe and Ronnie English; Shirley Ferman and B. Chinn vs. Y. Kushida and Virginia Jennings.

Boys Aren't Inmates

* * * * * *

They're Just Being Hazed

Those peculiar looking individuals you have seen running around in the somewhat disillusioning garb of a moronic female are not escaped inmates from Napa or any other domicile for the mentally deficient. They are, to use modern-day vernacular, being hazed.

Because of their participation in that well-known game of football, they have earned a Block "S", and the Block "S" society feels that they should, in their own inimitable way, show the public-at-large that they are lambs being led to the slaughter in no uncertain terms. Under the able leadership of Dick "I'm-only-human" Osborne and Vern Oulette, assistant yell head, the meandering neophytes will be put through their paces for the rest of the week with a performance put on at the noon dance today and at the boxing show tonite.

Climaxing the week-long antics will be the initiation ceremonies to be held from 4 to 6 o'clock on Friday. Following these mystery-shrouded ceremonies, the members will have a dinner if all parties concerned are able to place that portion of their external anatomy on a chair. Next week these men will be able to take their place among the student body with a fine feeling of satisfaction. They've made their block!

Mural Basketballers Start Second Round

With two games already played, intramural basketballers are marking time until tomorrow when they will swing into the second day of their tournament.

Because of the lack of time, there will be two or three games played each day, depending on the day. Monday and Friday there will be three games played; Thursday there will be three at eleven and three at noon with Tuesday contestants only taking part in two fracas. With the exception of the eleven o'clock Thursday game, all other games will begin at 12:10.

In order to speed up the procession, games will be played in the Women's gym every day but Tuesday and on the lower field court and Salvation Army court every day. There will be no contests on Wednesday due to the noon dance. A list of the competing teams include: Division I: Pugs, Harden's Tanksters, The Elite, and the Rover Boys, winners in the intramural football race. Division II: Farmer's Boys, Dopes, Celtics, Steam Rollers. Division III: Purple Flashes, Basketeers, Hoopsters and the Block "S", runners-up in the intramural football classic.

Scheduled games for tomorrow include: 11 o'clock—The Elite vs. Harden's Tanksters, women's gym; Celtics vs. Steam Rollers, lower field court; Purple Flashes vs. Basketeers, Salvation Army court.

12 o'clock: Hoopsters vs. Block "S", women's gym; Pugs vs. Elite, Salvation Army; Farmer's Boys vs. Celtics, lower field court.

Managers will be sent notices a day before the dates scheduled for their games and they will be expected to have their teams ready to play by game time.

J. V. Quintet Boasts Many Victories

With victories over the Primrose A. C., 42-27; the Signal Oil Co., 21-20, and the Utopia Parlor, 27-20, the Junior Varsity 45's hoop squad look eagerly towards their fourth and fifth games of the season this week-end.

Next on Coach George Mirande's schedule is the Alameda Elks on Friday nite and the St. Ignatius Hi team on Saturday, with both games being played in the State gym. Undefeated and untied, the Baby Gaters are looking forward to holding that record when they meet the aforementioned groups. Playing stellar ball for the 45's in their past three games were Chandler and Thompson, guards; McRitchie, who is a freshman but shows plenty of promise and has a point total of 9, and Frankie Collins who is high-point man. Ronald English, A1 tennis star, has lost some of the finish he had last season and has yet to find the "eye" necessary to make points.

Not to be forgotten in the annals of State's Junior basketeers are the Flying A's. Their record shows one loss and one win with the Fort McDowell boys to be met on Friday and St. Ignatius 30's engaged for Saturday's tussle. According to Mirande, also coaching the Flying A's, Dukhorn is high-pointer with Lyons and Button a close second and Ed Smith playing his usual "floor" game.

EXECUTIVE BOARD NOTES

November 22, 1937.

The twelfth regular meeting of the Executive Board was called to order at 7:30 P. M. The minutes of the previous meeting were approved as corrected.

COMMUNICATIONS

Music Department.

Theodore Coombs expressing thanks for flowers sent Virginia Coombs.

COMMITTEES

The trophy case in the Student Body Office will soon be completed, the necessary material having definitely been purchased.

Mr. Zech reported that posters and individual post box notices in regard to the "Petty Thievery Campaign" would soon be out.

President Smith announced the promise of a new administration building as a result of the "Strategy Committee's" recent visit to Sacramento. Other contacts will also be made in the hope of securing Federal aid. The committee welcomes all suggestions.

The Student Institute of Pacific Relations committee recommended that no delegate be sent to the convention through the Student Body, since three delegates are already being sent from State by some of the campus organizations and the value of sending a fourth delegate would not justify the expense.

Miss Ferrari urged a serious consideration of the question.

The Junior Prom was reported a huge success in all respects—between one hundred and thirty-five dollars ($135.00) and one hundred and forty dollars ($140.00) clear.

Mr. Decker's home was offered for the coming Executive Board party.

A request having been made that the "Thursday Hour", originally set aside for club and class meetings, be used for scheduling regular classes in the future, the committee appointed to investigate the matter, presented the names of the clubs actually making use of this hour and referred the final decision to the entire Board.

Arrangements have been made to hold the Red Cross Drive Dance in the women's gym, on December 10, from 9 o'clock until 12 o'clock.

The committee recommended that the admission be twenty-five cents (25c) plus one canned goods (or 35c without the canned food). This, they considered would be more practical in many ways.

OLD BUSINESS

After due consideration of the question, a motion was made and seconded that the recommendation of the committee in regard to the S. I. P. R. Convention delegate be accepted. Motion passed.

A motion was made and seconded that the date for the Executive Board party be set for Monday evening, December 6th. Motion passed.

Arrangements will be made by Mr. Rees.

It was suggested that a more extensive survey be made of student opinion, concerning the "Thursday Hour" question, of classes which might be scheduled at this hour, and just how many students would be affected by a change.

A motion was made and seconded that the admission for the Red Cross Dance, as proposed by the committee be accepted. Motion passed.

A short recess was called for Executive Board pictures to be taken. (Retaken).

Mr. Rees announced that the Franciscan would stand half the expense for class president pictures and the presidents would be asked to pay the other half.

In view of the fact that the Golden Gater has sufficient funds for running expenses, and since there is still a deficit from last year's Franciscan, a motion was made and seconded that the previous motion which turned over the '37-'38 excess handbook money to the Golden Gater be rescinded and that this money be turned over to alleviate the '36-'37 Franciscan debt. Motion passed.

A question was brought up concerning the profits which were to be turned over to individual organizations from the Alpha Phi Gamma Fair last semester. Miss Stadelman and Miss Bolander were asked to investigate.

It was suggested that a more intensive inventory of student opinion be obtained in regard to the present library problem and possibly through individual notes placed in post boxes.

A motion was made and seconded that this Board go on record as unanimously favoring the publication of a "razzy" edition of the Golden Gater this term. Motion passed.

A motion was made and seconded that letters be sent to the Frederic Burk Administration and Mr. Carson requesting more stringent regulation of children who have been disturbing music classes during the past month. Motion passed.

Mr. Rees, Mr. Chamberlin and Mr. Worth were requested to remain after the meeting to discuss the setting up of various permanent committees.

There being no objections, the following dates were approved and placed on our social calendar:

February 12, 1938—"Snuffy Shuffle".

January 14, 1938—Junior Day (and night).

President Will Smith requested that a register be signed (name and post box number and time) by anyone entering the Student Body Office other than Executive Board members. Miss White will secure the register.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 9:00 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
EDITH WHITE,
Secretary.

Roberts Attends N. Y. A. Conclave In Denver

Continuation of the National Youth Administration was advocated by delegates to a regional convention of high school and college administrators held in Denver, November 19 and 20. The regional conference was headed by Mr. Aubrey Williams, national director of the National Youth Administration.

Representing San Francisco State at the conference was Dr. Alexander C. Roberts, president. The general program adopted by the conference included the following items:

"Advocation of a better choice of work projects. This would mean the widening of the present work projects and attempts to fit the type of project to the student.

"Simplification of procedure and elimination of unnecessary red tape."

Speaking on the conference, Dr. Roberts declared, "It is useless to provide beautiful buildings for high schools and colleges unless all worthy students are enabled to attend them."

Faculty Discussion

"Frontier Radicalism in American History" will be the topic to be presented by Dr. Treutlein and discussed by the various members of the newly-organized Faculty Club at the monthly meeting to be held on Friday, December 3, at 8 p. m. at the home of Dr. Hertz, 279 20th Ave., San Francisco.
